

Charter of Young People's Rights

Young People have to Right to:

Expect to be treated with kindness and respect

Be given enough information that they know what to expect while they attend the Link Centre

Be involved in any decisions that are made about themselves

Expect to be helped when they ask for it or need it

Expect that information that they give to the Link Centre is not talked about to other people

Expect that permission is obtained from their parent/guardian and themselves before their information is shared with any other service

Talk to staff if they are unhappy with something that is happening at the Link Centre and know that they will be listened to and not get into trouble for making a complaint.
